FOUR LAYERS OF FABRIC IN THIS FROCK.

The rich, chintilly lace, used so much this season, demands equal elegance in the fabric combined with it. Such lace may not be draped directly over satin, but there must be a softening "cloud" of chiffon beneath it. In this instance there is also a cloud of black chiffon over the lace, which is draped above white chiffon and that in turn above white satin. The hat is also black and white, and the gloves are of white, silk embroidered in white and black in a dainty imitation of chintilly effect.

played in the Buffington cement plant and Tuesday night while at work fell and fractured his skull. The remains were taken to Jones' morgue where they were shipped to his home in Indiana Harbor.

Start Work at Once.

Co. to Cruetz and James, contractors, and as the material has already arrived work on the contract started today. Before the year is over every unimproved street in the first subdivision will be improved.
